

New York Real Estate Standard Operating Procedures

Pursuant to New York State law, Koriny is required to publish its Standard Operating Procedures that detail prerequisites that all prospective homebuyers (“Prospective Buyers”) must meet before they receive services from a New York Koriny agent.

New York Koriny agents must implement these pre-services procedures uniformly with respect to any Prospective Buyer.

- Prospective Buyer Identification. Koriny does not require Prospective Buyers to provide identification to work with a Koriny agent. However, Prospective Buyers may be required to show proof of identification to (i) enter certain Compass offices if required by the building’s security, (ii) attend an open house or showing at the direction of a homeowner or listing agent, or (iii) in any other circumstance as directed by a third party, including but not limited to, a seller or listing agent.
- Buyer Representation Agreement. Koriny does not require Prospective Buyers to sign an exclusive buyer representation agreement to work with a Compass agent, however, a prospective buyer and Compass agent may agree to utilize an exclusive buyer representation agreement.
- Prospective Buyer Evidence of Pre-Approval. Koriny does not require Prospective Buyers to provide confirmation of a loan or mortgage pre-approval to work with a Koriny agent; however, a third party, including a seller or listing agent, may require proof of pre-approval, including but not limited to, prior to attending a showing or open house or receiving an offer from the Prospective Buyer.
